Our Membership Registration Form has to be completed manually and submitted to our Registrar, Marion, either by email or in person at one of our open houses. For members who do not have access to a printer, forms will be available when you go down to register at one of our Open House days. Marion will also be available to take registrations at our opening day on April 29th.

When you sign the membership form, you are also pledging your acceptance of our Code of Conduct. A copy of this code is attached (above) and it is required that you read it before you sign your form. The definitions are also attached above.

For members who use online banking, we again have the option to pay membership fees online using an e-transfer. This is not mandatory, just another option. Cash and cheques will always be accepted.
