

PROVINCIAL MEN'S SINGLES

Our own Jack Robertson is competing in the BC Provincial Men's Singles Championship at Stanley Park Lawn Bowling Club in Vancouver this weekend. After two days of competition, Jack sits in 8th place with an impressive 3 wins and 1 loss, putting him in a strong position heading into Sunday's playdowns.

Below is the draw for tomorrow, along with a link to the round robin results.

The top 16 players advance to the playdowns, which begin at 9:00 am Sunday morning. The semi-finals (scheduled for 11:30 am) and the final (scheduled for 2:15 pm) will be broadcast by Geoff Poulton, with Davie Mathie providing commentary.

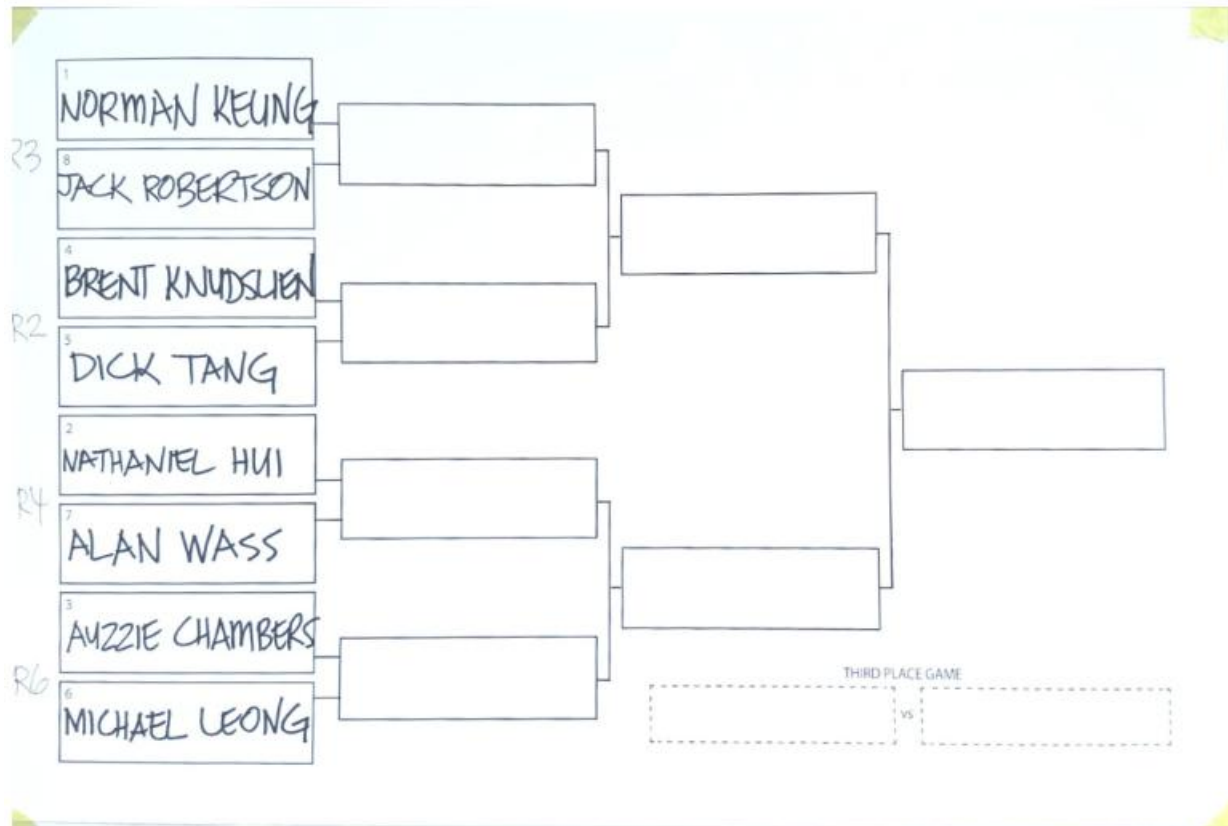

Please note: These broadcast times may change, as the playdown format has been expanded from 8 qualifying players to 16. Be sure to check the broadcast schedule Sunday morning for any updates.

Good luck, Jack—we'll all be cheering you on!

UPDATE

Sadly, Jack's run came to a halt in the second round of the day. He said his first game was probably the best game he has ever played but the second not so much. That is the way of sports. But tune in later today to watch the finals games as I am sure there will be some terrific plays.

Jack has won the first of five rounds today. Round two starts at about 10:30. We do not have an updated streaming time for you yet but if it is still just the semi and finals that will be broadcast then they will be about 60 to 90 minutes later than initially scheduled. Marion sent us a picture the playdown schedule, shown below.
